

Department of Educational Leadership
College of Education, University of Nevada, Las Vegas
Dr. Michael S. Robison Program Coordinator
mike.robison@unlv.edu CEB 335
702/895-4884

Ten Reasons
Why I should enroll in the
UNLV Leadership Preparation
ON-LINE
Masters Degree Program!

1. Quality Program - Courses are the same for on-line as they are for the on-campus program
2. NCATE Accredited
3. Meets all state of Nevada requirements for an endorsement to serve as a school or program administrator
4. Incorporates a minimum of 150 hours of field experience and internships - which can be done in your home school.
5. ISLLC - (Interstate School Leaders Licensure Consortium) based making your Nevada Degree reciprocal with most other state departments of education.
6. All courses taught by active doctoral prepared faculty, both respected practitioners and tenured research faculty.
7. You can complete the degree in 24 months or less.
8. All courses permit the use of on-line library resources, you do not need to go to a university library, we bring the library to you.
9. Individualized help available by phone, Skype or email.
10. You start your program with 20 students and finish the program with the same 20 students - a cohort group.

And all this without ever leaving your home. Interested call Dr. Michael S. Robison at 895-4884 or mike.robison@unlv.edu or Dr. Patrick Carlton at 895-1896 or carltonp@unlv.nevada.edu

First Cohort started January 2009
Second Cohort starts August 2009